HARSHA DAS

Business Consultant & Data Analyst

Bengaluru

Summary

I love to dig into Business Problems & solve them with data-driven solutions. I create, scale & optimize Business Strategies by focusing on key results & adapting to new insights.

My personal & professional experiences have taught me:
To understand the Client's utmost need
To get new perspectives by meeting new people
To discuss the emerging ideas through Storytelling

Most recently, I have worked on a Case Study to get a better understanding of Machine Learning Algorithms.

Being in the field of Data Science makes me believe in the power of knowledge acquisition by learning constantly.
